THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The suffering of a child symbolizes uniquely terrible evil as well as despair about the future. This week's Gospel gives a "limit" case in which Jesus encounters this evil in the form of a mother with a suffering daughter. What He does is stunning and massively helpful for us if we bravely ponder the details.

The Canaanite woman comes to Jesus and begs His mercy. "My daughter is tormented by a demon," she declares to Him. Shockingly, He responds first with silence, then with a dismissive comment and only then finally accedes to her third request. Is this simply a lesson in perseverance in our petitions to God, who is like a genie in a bottle? Does that justify the humiliation and pain this woman suffers? Is the Lord cruel?

I don't think so. Notice how the encounter ends. She compares herself to a dog at the table of a master. Jesus responds by praising her great faith and fulfills her deep desire. Somehow this non-Israelite woman intuits that this harrowing situation is not dumb suffering. She senses that the door of God's family is, in Jesus, being opened to her and her loved ones. She trusts that she is at the Lord's table, and her desires will be fulfilled and that all her sufferings — and her daughter's, too — will lead to a great banquet. In our sufferings this week, the Lord wants us to treat Him less like a genie in a bottle and more like the Master who has taken us — lost little dogs that we are — into His home forever. Trust that and keep praying in the face of evil.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, August 27th Readings

Sunday: Is 22:19-23/Ps 138:1-2, 2-3, 6, 8 (8bc)/Rom 11:33-36/Mt 16:13-20

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, August 27th

- The Lord condemns Shebna (the master of King Hezekiah's palace) for ignoring Isaiah's prophetic warning and gives to Eliakim the authority and honor that belonged to Shebna. What helps you stay focused on following God's commandments?
- Paul celebrates the wisdom and knowledge — the mystery — of God. If you could ask God one question, what would it be?
- In Peter confessing Jesus as "the Messiah, the Son of the living God," Jesus gives him the authority to hold the keys to the kingdom of heaven. How do you use authority in your life?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Gospel reveals what miraculous things can happen when one embraces a single-minded faith in Jesus Christ. Peter gets out of a wind-tossed boat when the Lord calls him. His faith is tested by his obedience to Jesus, who is calling him out onto the water. In the midst of the waves and the wind, Peter gets out of the boat and walks toward Jesus. Good stewards heed Christ's call to them. Sometimes that call directs them to take on seemingly impossible challenges. This week, reflect on how the Lord could be calling you out of the safety of your own "boat" to take on the impossible.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Prayers God Always Answers

When I was a child, my mother bought a book called “The Prayers God Will Always Answer.” I remember my anticipation as I cracked the spine and turned to the first page.

I had been spending a lot of time asking God — begging God, actually — over and over again for some specific things that were not materializing. Frankly, it was beginning to feel a lot like that time I asked Santa Claus for a new house, only to wake up on Christmas morning to find ordinary, non-house-shaped presents under the tree — and a growing sense of suspicion that my faith had been ill-placed.

To the great disappointment of my pre-teen heart, my mother’s book was not a directory of magical phrases God is compelled to obey. It was a list that included things like “Forgive me” and “Help me.” I tossed it aside, disappointed.

I marvel at the wisdom and the confidence of the Canaanite woman who persists in begging Jesus to heal her daughter. She is ignored, and still she will not be deterred. The disciples try to dismiss her — still, she presses on. Christ himself challenges her, and her faith makes her ready with a reply.

Somehow, I am sure that even if Christ had said, “No, it cannot be done for you as you wish,” she would have still dropped to her knees and worshiped him because she knew what I did not: God is not a vending machine, and he’s not the genie from “Aladdin.” Prayer is not a negotiation but a relationship.

The story of the Canaanite woman is not a story about how to get God to give you what you want. It is a story about the prayers God always answers.

“Then Jesus said to her in reply, ‘O woman, great is your faith!’” — Matthew 15:28

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER For Our Parish Family

Even in the midst of these extraordinary times, you continue to reveal your loving presence in the communal life of our parish.

Help us to see your active presence in our parish family, a community where peace, love and fellowship will prevail. May it be truly prayerful, intensely Eucharistic, and deeply joyful.

Teach us how to be good stewards of our parish family even during times of stress and anxiety.

By the power of the Holy Spirit make our hearts humble and compassionate so that we may carry out our responsibilities to our parish family in a just and holy manner.

And through your Spirit, may we love one another as you love each of us, as sisters and brothers who gather around the Eucharistic table, an authentically holy, Catholic community, working together to hasten your Kingdom.

In Jesus’ name we pray.
Amen

TESTIMONIAL BY PARISHIONER JULIE HEYRMAN

WHAT ADORATION MEANS TO ME

What started out as an invitation from a friend to pray once a week in front of the Blessed Sacrament for one of our Priests became a blessing to me. Spending time with Jesus in quiet Adoration is the most peaceful hour/hours of my week. I come to Him and just rest in His presence. Offering myself, opening my heart to His love and wherever my Lord leads me during my time with Him. When my mind wanders I ask Him to bring me back to Him. Sometimes I just say, "Jesus, Jesus ... I love You, I praise You, I thank You, I adore You!" I don't know why I have not taken the time throughout my life to be in God's Holy presence in Adoration. I was so busy with life, when the giver of life was just waiting for me to just give Him one hour. This time with Jesus in Adoration and attending Mass during the week more frequently has changed me. I'm not sure how to explain it except to say try it. Make an effort to spend time with The One who loves you unconditionally for one hour a week. You may think, how will I be able to sit in silence for one hour? You can bring with you scripture to meditate on or other religious material to guide you in prayer. But try to just be still before our Lord and see where He leads you. I promise He will lead you to Him. Come to Me, and I will give you rest. Thank you, God ♥!
