THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION 32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Lately I've been enjoying the deep meaning of Eastern icons. I love how they express a tapestry of meaning in a way that can surpass the written or spoken word. Today's parable of the ten virgins from Jesus is a good example. Try googling "wise and foolish virgins icon" and you'll see an image of how our Christ meets our heart's deepest needs if we attend to him with the proper attitude.

I'm serious. Take a moment to google and look at it. See how it depicts the risen Jesus behind a closed door with the five wise virgins with lighted lamps. He gazes with them toward the five foolish and lamp-less virgins, symbolizing the outward looking of divine love for the lost. Moreover, the wedding feast is no ordinary one. It takes place in a walled city and garden, indicating it's a new Jerusalem and a return to Eden. The table isn't typical, either. It's a Eucharistic feast. Now we see that the door in Jesus' parable is the way into the church, where Christ is the new light burning amidst the dark midnight of this world.

The richness continues. We notice, too, that the foolish virgins look exactly the same as the wise ones in their clothes, hair, and expressions. The only difference is they departed to buy oil and now they are sadly excluded. We often act like consumers in the marketplace to fulfill our need for love and mercy. We'll always end up disappointed if we shop around. Jesus sums up the moral of the story this way: "Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Watch, remain, don't spiritually shop. It is always better to quietly remain close to the Eucharistic community of the Church, even if we feel like our oil has run out. This week, let's consider placing the icon of the wise and foolish virgins on our phone lock screen or computer desktop to help us remember to stay close to him, especially when life feels dark.

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, November 19th Readings

Sunday: Prv 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31/Ps 128:1-2, 3, 4-5
(see 1a)/1 Thes 5:1-6/Mt 25:14-30 or 25:14-15, 19-21

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit
<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, November 19th

- Proverbs describes the ideal wife who runs her household with wisdom and grace. How would you describe your household growing up?
- Paul reminds the Thessalonians to stay alert and sober for the day when the Lord Jesus will return. Why do you think the date of this event is hidden from us?
- Jesus teaches about the importance of using our God-given gifts faithfully and prudently in the parable of the talents. What gifts have you used well in your life?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

Seeking Wisdom

I think if any of us were asked the question, "Do you love wisdom? Do you seek wisdom?" we would, at first, be a little taken aback. And then we would answer quickly "Of course!" with absolutely no doubt in our minds.

But a different way of asking the question is this: "Are you making wise choices?" That's a question that would put a fair few of us on the back foot.

The virgins who went out to meet the bridegroom were all the same. They had the exact same intentions. They had the exact same stamina or lack of it. They had the exact same knowledge of the night being dark and lamps being necessary.

What made five foolish and five wise?

It was their choices. Only their choices set them apart.

We may rely upon the wisdom of another — the parent who reminds us to go to confession, the friend who demurs when we start speaking gossip, the priest who preaches boldly from the pulpit against an injustice we lack the courage to denounce ourselves. But even if we feel safeguarded by their good influence, their wisdom won't save us.

We may possess a little wisdom ourselves — we may know well that a dark night is hard to navigate and that we need the assistance of a lamp. We may go to Mass once in a while, read the Bible when we have time and serve others when it's convenient.

But a lamp needs oil to burn in the darkness, just as wisdom requires action to be brought forth into the world.

We may love God just as much as we should — our flesh may pine, our soul may thirst. But a parched field never brought rain on itself just by being dry.

We must make the choice.

"Thus will I bless you while I live; lifting up my hands, I will call upon your name." — Psalm 63:4

ENTRANCE REMINDER

This is just a reminder that when you come to Mass on the weekends, you are to enter and exit through our main Parish entrance or the West Gym doors. The Borromeo Room doors are now locked on the weekends and will remain so moving forward. We have also noticed that many parishioners are parking on the street again. In order to be good neighbors, we would like to remind you that Mass attendees should be parking in our lots only, not on the streets. Thank you for your understanding!

CHECKING OUT THE GREEK & HEBREW BIBLES IN CGS

Our school's 2nd Graders recently spent time enjoying the Greek and Hebrew Bibles in CGS. In Level 2 of Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS), the children learn about how God's word and God's light are for everyone around the world by looking at Bibles in a number of different languages. They are amazed to discover that the Hebrew language (and thus the Hebrew Bible) is backwards from ours and ponder how we might find each other's differences surprising and even weird, but God doesn't. We also look at the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet, the Alpha and the Omega, which are often used in Church (including on the Easter Candle and the front of the Roman Missal) as a symbol for Jesus.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Fruit Juice, Kleenex, Campbell's Chunky or Progresso Soup, Paper Towels, Toilet Paper

In today's Gospel on the Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, Jesus challenges us to "stay awake" by taking time to seriously look at ourselves, the priorities of our lives, and how we are growing spiritually. Now is the time for us to say, Lord, open to us the doors of your mercy and kindness. As you place your gifts of food in the barrels (located at the Northeast entrance and the West school entrance) or your donations in the Poor Boxes (located in the Narthex), remember that you are helping those in our community who are suffering, hungry and frightened to know that they belong to God.

If you are in need of assistance or know someone who is in need, please contact us at 262-367-0800. We would like to help! The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland. It is open every Tuesday morning between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm.

CHRISTMAS AND GIVING!

The Holiday Train will arrive on Monday, December 4 at 5:30 p.m. St. Charles' St. Vincent de Paul Conference will be collecting funds and non-perishable food items for our local pantry and the Hartland Food Pantry. Help us fill the DPVW trucks with food for the needy in our community while having a wonderful time celebrating the Christmas season.

GO WITH THE FLOW or STAND YOUR GROUND? WHY RESPECT for CONSCIENCE MATTERS in HEALTH CARE

Fr. Justin Kizewski, Director of Intellectual Formation
St. Francis de Sales Seminary

With the many pressures surrounding end-of-life decisions, abortion, vaccine mandates and even transgender drugs and surgeries, how can doctors, nurses and patients stand strong in defending their conscience rights? What is conscience exactly, from the standpoint of Catholic teaching, and what is the way forward in this challenging time? And why, for patients, is it important that conscience rights of health care professionals are respected? Father Kizewski, with a Masters in bioethics, will explore these matters and more.
