THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

In May 2023, for the first time in almost three quarters of a century, a monarch was crowned in England. A few days later a friend of mine scoffed, "What a waste of time and energy! What is the point of a king?"

I'm a proud American who wants neither theocracy nor monarchical restoration. I like our democratic republic. But the coronation of King Charles reminded me of something needed in every person and community: confidence in the future. The king's most basic role is to symbolize the unity of the nation. In England, the parliament members handle many of the practical duties of governance. But the king or queen can do what they cannot: embody in a single person the reality and future of a whole nation. To say, "this is our king" is to say, "we exist as a community, and we have a future." Kingship isn't primarily about the power of one person or family. It's about the enduring identity and unity of the whole.

To say Christ is our King is to say we exist as a people. We are one in him. We are, and we will be as long as he is. And since he will be our risen king forever, together we have a future filled with hope. Even the best countries will finally fall. But Christ and his Church will endure forever. What good news! It's not a waste of time to crown a king. We do it all the time. Let's be sure to crown the right one — the one whose kingdom never ends.

~ Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, December 3rd Readings

Sunday: Is 63:16b-17, 19b; 64:2-7/Ps 80:2-3, 15-16, 18-19 (4)/1 Cor 1:3-9/Mk 13:33-37

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, December 3rd

- In prayer, the prophet Isaiah grieves over our sins that separate us from God. What sorrow or distress have you experienced over the past week?
- Paul offers up a prayer of thanksgiving to God for the many gifts the believers have received because of their faith in Jesus. As we begin the season of Advent, for what are you thankful?
- Each Advent, the Gospel reading begins with Jesus instructing his disciples to watch carefully for the end times. How often do you think about the Second Coming of Jesus and judgment day?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

GOD HEARS, GOD FORGIVES,
AND GOD HEALS

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The King Comes Holding a Mirror

Of all the many wonderful, thorough examinations of conscience I have come across, the one I normally utilize is very simple and perfectly suited to someone like me who is not capable of profound thought at the end of the day.

It's just one very short question: Which Christs did I not recognize today?

The King always comes in disguise, and I know I miss Him in so many ways every single day. I miss Him in people ignored or dismissed. I miss Him in opportunities avoided and in moments that could have turned into prayer but instead turned into phone-scrolling. I miss Him when He is right in front of me, holding up a mirror and calling my name, begging for my conversion of heart.

The Christian life calls us to constant self-scrutiny. It's not a comfortable life, always thinking about what you could do better, but the Lord shepherds us rightly. His pastures have nothing to offer those who are perfect and strong.

He has gone in search of the lost. He has reclaimed those who have strayed, healed those who were injured, given rest to those who were weary.

We can't be followers of Christ if we are not willing to own our sins. God's mercy does not dismiss our sins as if they never existed and were not important.

No, it does something far, far better — God's mercy absolves our sins. It sets us free from them. But to be truly free, you have to understand the tyranny of what once enslaved you.

"And He will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats." — Matthew 25:32

SAINT OF THE WEEK EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH

SERVANT OF GOD DOROTHY DAY

Servant of God Dorothy Day was an American journalist, social activist, and Catholic convert who co-founded the Catholic Worker Movement. Her work inspired countless others and earned her recognition as one of the most influential Catholic figures of the 20th century.

Prayer

Merciful God, You called your servant Dorothy Day to show us the face of Jesus in the poor and forsaken. By constant practice of the works of mercy, she embraced poverty and witnessed steadfastly to justice and peace. Count her among your saints and lead us all to become friends of the poor ones of the earth and to recognize you in them. We ask this through your Son Jesus Christ, bringer of good news to the poor. Amen.

Reconciliation Opportunities

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

St. Charles will have many opportunities to celebrate the sacrament of Reconciliation this Advent. First, during our Encounter Jesus Event, there will be three priests available on Monday, December 4 and Tuesday, December 5 beginning at 7:00 pm. Following Exposition, Eucharistic Reflection, and Benediction, Father Declan Gibson will hear Confessions, along with two additional priests until everyone has had the opportunity to have their Confession heard. This takes the place of our usual Communal Penance Services this Advent. Second, on the mornings of December 4 and 5, Father Gibson will hear confessions after daily Mass. Third, every Thursday and Saturday, there will be two priests scheduled during our regular Reconciliation times. As a reminder, the regular times are Thursdays at 5:00 pm and Saturdays at 3:00 pm. We invite you to come and prepare your heart to receive Christ more fully at Christmas!

Sr. Bethany Madonna from the Sisters of Life dives into the truth about who Jesus Christ is. Discover the love of Jesus for yourself and listen to Sr. Bethany Madonna!

Who is Jesus? | The Search | Episode 5

The most beautiful part of this story is this: we can know God's love, personally. This is the person of Jesus. But how did this seemingly insignificant carpenter born into poverty in a dusty corner of the Roman Empire become the most pivotal figure in all of history?

If you have prayer requests, please send an email to prayernetwork@stcharleshartland.org. If you are in need of immediate prayers, please don't hesitate to email emergencyprayers@stcharleshartland.org or contact the Parish Office at 262-367-0800.

Your everyday expenses for groceries, gas, gifts and dinner out can give back 1% to 15% of your purchase cost to St. Charles. By buying Scrip cards at the parish or online, you are providing a financial boost to St. Charles without spending a single penny more. Some cards are even easily refillable online.

To help with your holiday gifting, you can get your Scrip gift cards after all weekend Masses through December 16 & 17 in the Parish Office. Don't forget your St. Nick stocking stuffers!

Thank you for supporting St. Charles!

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Pasta Sides, Black Beans, Cereal, Kleenex, Toilet Paper, Paper Towels

Today as we celebrate Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, we hear Jesus say: "... whatever you did for one of the least brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me." The solemnity reminds us that while governments come and go, Christ reigns as King forever. He offers us a kingdom of justice, peace and love. Knowing that we find the face of Christ in the poor, during the month of October, through your gifts, the St Charles Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to serve 73 families, providing food and paying utility and rent bills. Thank you for your generosity.

If you are in need of assistance or know someone who is in need, please contact us at 262-367-0800. We would like to help! The St. Charles SVP Food Pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland.
