THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

EASTER SUNDAY | JOHN 20: 1-9

When I was a young boy, my parents told me about their wedding. Then a few years later they showed me my mother’s wedding dress and my dad’s suit. It was astonishing to see and touch garments that connected me to the event that led to my existence. Of course, I already believed they were married based on their word, but these holy garments made the event real and tangible for me.

Something like this is at play when St. John reports encountering in Jesus’ tomb, “the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place” (John 20:7). Those two separate cloths for his head and for his body, respectively, meant a great deal to St. John and to the early Christians. Some years after the Resurrection, there surfaced reports of two cloths with unusual characteristics, one bearing the image of a crucified man’s body, another smaller one with the image of a wounded man’s face. Some call them the Shroud of Turin and the Veil of Manoppello; they both can be seen today.

These two cloths have a long and complicated history, and scholars debate aspects of them. If you’re curious, I encourage you to read about them. To be clear, I believe in the Resurrection of Jesus because of the testimony of eyewitnesses and the gift of faith in the Church. Nevertheless, seeing these two mysterious cloths have made the life-giving event of Jesus’ Resurrection more real and tangible for me. Maybe they will for you, too.

— Father John Muir

Sunday, April 27th Readings

Acts 5:12-16/Ps 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24 (1)/Rv 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19/Jn 20:19-31

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, April 20th

- In the aftermath of Jesus’ resurrection, the Apostles performed “many signs and wonders,” healing the sick and exorcising unclean spirits. Is there something in your life that needs healing?
- John is initially frightened at the strange vision of Jesus, but Jesus reassures him, “Do not be afraid.” How does Jesus calm your fears?
- The resurrected Jesus’ first words to his disciples are “Peace be with you.” How could you be a peacemaker this week with a family member or neighbor?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

EASTER INSPIRATION

There is an invitation in the empty tomb and the abandoned burial cloths.

What great things could we accomplish, if we only believe that Christ has conquered death?

Go forth this Easter season, boldly embracing the hope of the Resurrection.

CELEBRATING HOLY WEEK

EASTER & EASTER SEASON April 20TH

He is Risen! Alleluia!!!

We have journeyed together through the forty days of Lent. We have worn purple, prayed, fasted, and given alms as we focused our hearts ever more keenly on Christ. Our music and our lives have been more sparing as we prepared our hearts for the great celebration of the Triduum and Easter Sunday.

The Easter Vigil, day three of the Triduum, is on Saturday, April 19th at 8:00pm. We then celebrate our regular schedule of Sunday morning Masses on Easter Sunday. At 7:00 am, we have cantors and a string quartet. At 9:00 am, we have the Bell Choir. At 11:00 am, we have the Adult Choir and a Brass Quartet. There is no 6:00 pm Mass on Easter Sunday. In order to help us celebrate lavishly and well, incense will be used at the Easter Vigil and on Easter Sunday at the 9:00 am and 11:00 am Masses.

Of note this year is that we will be welcoming many new members into the church who have participated in Becoming Fully Catholic with Father Ariel. At the Easter Vigil, we have the honor of welcoming Catechumens, who will receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist. On Easter Sunday morning, Candidates will be confirmed in the Catholic faith.

Easter Sunday is the start of the Easter Season, which lasts for fifty days, culminating in the Feast of Pentecost. During the Easter Season, the entire character of our worship changes. Our music becomes brighter and more jubilant. We can proclaim once again the joyous refrain of "Alleluia." "Alleluia" comes from the ancient Hebrew meaning, "Praise the Lord!" It is used in the Mass as a superlative expression of thanksgiving, joy, and triumph since Christ has conquered death. We sing "Jesus Christ is Risen Today" with its chorus of Alleluias. We proclaim the Gospel Acclamation, which uses Alleluia as the refrain and then a verse that summarizes the main idea of the upcoming Gospel reading. Lastly, we are dismissed at the end of the Mass with the priest or deacon chanting: "Go in the peace of Christ, Alleluia, Alleluia!" To which we respond, "Thanks be to God, Alleluia, Alleluia!" This ancient chant ties us to our rich tradition and history as Catholics and reminds us every week of Christ's resurrection and triumph over death. He is risen: Alleluia!

ARCHBISHOP GROB'S EASTER LETTER

EASTER 2025

Why do you seek the living one among the dead?

- Luke 24:5

Hello Everyone,

As you may recall, some women who followed Jesus awoken with a plan that first Easter Sunday morning — to prepare his body properly for eternal rest. They gather the customary supplies and set out for the tomb. If they were concerned about moving the heavy stone at the tomb's entrance, it's unknown to us.

We do know this — two angels greet them with a question: "Why do you seek the living one among the dead?" What a strange and somewhat chiding thing to say to these poor, grieving, well-intentioned women.

However, it is the key question of the first Easter morning and the key question we should ask ourselves as believers every morning: Why do we seek the living One among the dead?

In a moment of graced insight, the women remember Jesus' words, and that remembrance — along with the empty tomb — became the impetus for their new plans: to go and tell his story, to tell their/our story.

He is risen! It is not over. In fact, it has only begun. Don't think that you can go and hide in the empty tomb. He is living in our midst. Go into the streets and look for him! Go to the prisons and soup kitchens, to the ghettos and the fringe areas of life. Go home to your families and acquaintances. He is there among your spouses and children, your coworkers and friends, your classmates and teammates.

In other words — like the women — remember what he told you.

And please realize — like the women — the best part of the story is ahead of you! Happy Easter!

As I do for you, please pray for me,

Most Reverend Jeffrey S. Grob
Archbishop of Milwaukee

DIVINE MERCY SERVICES IN OUR AREA

As you know, St. Charles usually has a Divine Mercy Service on the Sunday after Easter. However, this year we are not able to do so, as our First Communion Mass occurs on the same day and time.

  - Holy Hill, Hubertus ~ 2:00 p.m.

If you have a devotion to the Divine Mercy, we encourage you to participate in one of these services. St. Charles will have a Divine Mercy Service next year in April 2026.

USCCB WORD OF LIFE

"Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, 'God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end' (Spe salvi 31)."
